

User Guide for the EDAT's group selection page

Group 1391

Team 4: Jorge González and Miguel Herrera

Get Started

Once you enter peaceful-gorge-88280.herokuapp.com, you will be sent to a basic info page, our home page when you're not logged in, which merely shows how the website works. You must be logged in in order to navigate through this website and, therefore, to use these services.

Home Log-In

Welcome to the EDAT group selection page!

Login

To view the contents of this web, you first need to login.

Use your NIE as username and your DNI number as password. These will be your credentials, do not use your email: that won't work.

Login

Convalidation

To be eligible for a convalidation and, thus, not having to do the practices again, your grades from last year must be:

Theory	Labs
More than 3 out of 10	More than 7 out of 10

Pair selection

In this website, you may select another student to be your partner. If he chooses to be your partner too, your pair will be validated and, thus, they will be your partner.

Group selection

You may also select your preferred practice group if you haven't been assigned one or you just want to switch groups for any reason.

If you have any question or trouble, please contact jorge.gonzalezgomez01@estudiante.uam.es or miguel.herreramartinez@estudiante.uam.es
Please, try using your institutional email (i.e. name.lastname@estudiante.uam.es)

Powered by w2.css

As you can see, this is just a basic page with information about every other service. The services provided in our page allows the students to select a lab group and pair for the EDAT course. Also, if you already did the lab practices last year and you entered the convalidation page, the page will display whether you are convalidated or not depending on some requirements.

Login

In order to login to the page, the user must enter its NIE as username and DNI as password. In case the username or password is invalid, the page will pop an error message. Be aware that you need to be a student of the EDAT course to access all the services provided by our page. If your login information is correct, you will be sent to the home page and you will be able to access all services through the navigation bar.

Homepage

When you are already logged in, the homepage shows you all the information related to your account. You will be able to see your full name and the theory and lab group you belong to. Also, the page will display whether your last year grades, if any, are convalidated or not and your pair status.

In the navigation bar you always have access to the four main services of our page; lab group selection, convalidation status, apply and break pair. Although in the homepage, there are also direct accesses to those services in case you still don't have a pair, lab group or your grades are not convalidated.

From here (or any other page while you're logged in) you may log-out from the link that says "Log-out".

Convalidation

The convalidation page displays basic info about your last year grades, and about the requirements. In a nutshell, you can only be convalidated if:

- You are not inside a group.
- You don't have a validated pair, or you didn't request a pair.
- Your grades are higher than those required down below.

Convalidation page

Notice: You MUST NOT be in a pair to apply for a convalidation!

Theory Required: 3.0/10 Your grades 0.0/10	Labs Required: 7.0/10 Your grades 0.0/10

You don't satisfy the conditions to be convalidated.
Your last year grades don't meet the requirements!

Apply group

This is our group selection page which lets you choose between different laboratory groups according to your theory group. For example, if you are assigned to group 126, the available options to join for the EDAT practices will be 1261, 1262 or 1263 as shown in the picture below. It is important to remark that this depends on your group, and on specific group constraints.
